ABOUT US

OUR STORY

Khaya iBhubesi is an exceptionally distinguished conference venue, an Oasis of scenic splendour and riverine tranquillity.

Gateway to the Home of the Lion - Khaya iBhubesi is situated on the banks of the Vaal River, on the outskirts of Parys, only 120 km's from Johannesburg.

Unique and versatile, our venue dually accommodates conferencing and corporate functions.

Khaya iBhubesi offers numerous teambuilding and other activities, all supervised by trained professionals as well as an array of themed evenings and live entertainment acts known for their wow factor.

Ultimately the abundance of space together with the range of activities is what makes Khaya iBhubesi the ideal corporate getaway

RESTAURANT, TEA GARDEN & BAR

DINNING & LEISURE

From offering an elegant menu, which equally matches the gracious decor of the Dumbe restaurant, our chefs will cater to your every whim.

At Khaya iBhubesi, we offer laden buffet tables through to elegant a-la-carte sit-down dinner parties. Enjoy exotic cocktails under an African sky or tea under the shade of the gazebo's in the tea garden.

From a light meal or a drink, enjoy the comfort of the vast outdoor spaces and tranquillity at Khaya iBhubesi.

CONTINUOUS POWER

A generator is installed to support continuous power supply.

WATER PURIFICATION

Two purification plants support clean water, with recurring independent testing.

CONNECT. COLLABORATE. GROW

TEAM BUILDING

The Khaya team promises that your team-building activities will be full of fun while teaching teamwork and interpersonal skills.

Our team-building dynamics include trust, support, bonding and communication. Fun activities are also available for informal team building and for less active participants.

The team-building facilitators are First Aid Level 3 certified. Please refer to our team-building list for prices and descriptions of the various activities on offer.
